

HyperLink DC Power Injectors (or known as Bias-T) provides power to remote mounted HyperAmp products through the antenna cable, simplifying installation. Current-sensing circuits provide remote amplifier diagnostic LEDs. In addition, these units provide effective lightning protection with multi-strike capability.